LE TIKEHAU

By Pearl Resorts

Le Tikehau by Pearl Resorts, the quiet one

Le Tikehau is blue, surrounded by variations of blue. Where sky and water meet, the horizon is barely visible. The sky transfers its colors to the sea, erupting into dazzling turquoise, clear azure, sapphire or cyan. It all depends on where you look and on the time of day.

Like a pearl hidden in its oyster, Le Tikehau sits on a private motu. Its 37 bungalows and suites are built with natural materials, the overwater rooms are set on the translucent lagoon. The decoration is charming and comfortable, the grounds are a green and flowered oasis on this land of coral.

About Tikehau

One of the Pacific's best-kept secrets, an atoll dear to the heart of Polynesians for its preserved beauty: suspended between sky and waves.

Tikehau is a crown of coral islets that form an exceptional, 26-km long lagoon. In the language of the Tuamotu, Tikehau means “peaceful landing”, and it's easy to understand the origins of its name.

Nestled in a wild coconut grove, on a pink sand beach, Le Tikehau by Pearl Resorts awaits you for a stay in paradise.

The woman is wearing a black and white patterned top. The deck is made of weathered wooden planks. In the background, there is a wooden chair and some driftwood.

TĀVAI Spa

In Polynesian culture, massage has been elevated to an art of living. From the youngest age, massage is used to bring balance and harmony to the body and the soul.

Very often passed on from generations to generations, it is a true gift and at TĀVAI Spa, we aim at being ambassadors of those ancient traditions of well-being and all oils used are made in the Islands of Tahiti.
