Ultimate Tour

This excursion takes you to the hidden treasures of Tetiaroa atoll, led by a naturalist guide from the Tetiaroa Society team.

A boat trip takes you to the motus (islets) to the east and north of the island, where you can discover the atoll's different ecosystems.

The «primary forest», stingrays, fish, sharks and seabirds will all be highlights of the day.

Finally, weather permitting, enjoy a relaxing swim in the Queen's Bath, offering a magnificent panoramic view of the entire Tetiaroa atoll.

The tour lasts 3h00.

Sailing Experience

Set sail and enjoy a unique sailing experience in the waters of Tetiaroa. Depending on the wind conditions, you will navigate either on a traditional sailing outrigger canoe or a trimaran, each offering a different experience.

The traditional sailing canoe is favored during lighter winds, offering a gentle and authentic navigation, while the trimaran is used in stronger winds for a more dynamic and sporty sailing experience.

Please note that while the sailing experience can be booked in advance, the type of vessel will be determined on the day depending on weather conditions.

This activity is available from November to July only.

Both experiences are accessible to all levels.

A good level of physical fitness is required.

Minimum age: 8 years old. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

Swimming skills are mandatory.

Whale Watching

Between August and October, the deep waters outside the atoll welcome humpback whales that come to mate and give birth before their migration to the South Pole.

Scour the horizon with our instructor to spot one or more individuals, sometimes even with a calf.

Weather permitting, guests will be invited in the water to snorkel at a respectful distance from the whales.

The boat tour lasts 3 hours.
For safety and comfort reasons, this activity is limited to 6 people.

No launching in water for children under 12 years of age.
Minimum age: 8 years old.
For experienced swimmers only.

The Blessing Ceremony

Imagine a moment where everything is designed to celebrate your love; a wedding anniversary, a renewal of vows or simply to express the depth of your feelings in the enchanting setting of Tetiaroa.

Before the ceremony, head crowns and fresh flowers will be brought to your villa, allowing to prepare for this extraordinary moment.

Then making way to the ceremony site, the priest will give a welcome speech and perform the traditional blessing with tī leaves and coconut water, giving this moment a sacred dimension. Vows can be exchanged if you wish, adding a personal touch to this unique moment. Listening to the priest's blessing together is a moment of deep spirituality. The ceremony continues with the Tifaifai ritual, a traditional cloth in which Tahitian newlyweds are traditionally enveloped together, surrounded by the love of their kin.

At the end of this emotional ceremony, you'll be presented with a Blessing Certificate symbolizing your union, and invited to enjoy champagne and the magical setting of Tetiaroa to the sound of local music.

Tye and dye workshop 'Ūra'a Pareu'

On the beach, we'll show you how to roll up the fabric of your pareu and then soak it in the different shades of your choice.

As you unfold your creation and spread it out in the sun, you'll see unique, colorful patterns emerge. Take your pareu to the beach or pool, and share a bit of the Polynesian spirit.

Our cultural entertainers can also teach you how to tie your brand-new pareu.

All-inclusive stay et Villa & Breakfast Stay

1 pareu offered per person & per stay

1 additional pareu 2 500 xPF

The Tahitian Language 'Reo Tahiti'

Tahitian is a musical language.

Our animators will help you to learn this language, which was originally only transmitted orally.

We'll teach you to introduce yourself, then say a few phrases you can use on the atoll.

You'll greet everyone you meet with a joyful «la Ora Na»...
