

THE BRANDO

Resource Guide

Discover a paradise beyond imagination in Tetiarioa. Encompassing 12 islets that surround a lagoon over 4 miles wide and home to the luxury resort The Brando, named after the actor who fell in love with this enchanting hideaway.

Only 20 minutes from Tahiti by plane, the resort features 36 sumptuous villas, including an exclusive residence. It is the gateway to a protected nature reserve where sea turtles, manta rays and exotic birds frequent white-sand shores, and shy coconut crabs hide under palm trees.

The Brando's stewardship arm, Tetiarioa Society, coordinates scientific research to monitor and care for the atoll's treasures, while leading guests on discovery tours through this tropical wonderland.

Whether planning a romantic stay, a family celebration, or simply looking for a place to reconnect, The Brando's dedicated concierge team will craft and imagine every detail, leaving you free to enjoy this natural haven and return transformed and rejuvenated.
